

Assignment 1 –Check List

The underlying theme for the assignment is “what is next?” for you (in TASK A, you are needed to reflect on where are you heading, what questions you have for your next prac etc.) as well as for the student(in TASK B, where you reflect on what is next for the student you are assessing the work of).

Task A–Checklist:

- 1- Did you identify four key reflections from your earlier placement or your learning journey so far?
- 2- Did you reflect critically upon each of these four key reflections?
- 3- Did you explain your key learning from these experiences?
- 4- Did you outline any questions you still need the answers of, particularly in view of assessments in context?
- 5- Did you outline the future considerations that you would like to explore during your next? placement?
- 6- Did you refer your readings/text book/research with quotes as evidence to support your ideas and suggestions?

Task B –Checklist:

1. Did you choose one sample of work to focus on in your assignment from the samples provided with the task on learnline (located at Assignment information at EPR 200 on Learnline)?
2. Did you choose sample of work from the year level and subject area which interests you most?
3. Did you visit <https://www.australiancurriculum.edu.au/> to establish links with Australian Curriculum document ?
4. Did you click the tab F-10 curriculum and to identify appropriate English, Mathematics, Science or History outcome/s (content descriptors) at different levels?
5. Did you select one/or more outcomes (content descriptors) to suit the level of student/s?
6. Did you annotate the selected task with explanations and feedback on their answers?
7. Did you use or prepare a rubric/check list/marketing criteria to work out a final grade and ensure reliability and consistency?
8. Did you provide final comments on the student work?
9. Are your comments/feedback informs and improves the learning and contributes toward success and achievement of the student?
10. Did you reflect on your own learning as you assessed the student’s work?

Is your total word count is around 1500-2000? (If not, make sure to be concise! the word count is mostly for your reflections on your journey and for “what is next” for the student. Annotations on the students work and description of ACARA outcomes and marking criteria are not counted towards the final word count).
